INTRODUCTION

We have proposed a fun loving website which is full of light weighted games. It will add fun to your life. We are launching those games in our website which will definitely reduce your stress as stress is a major problem in everyone's life. It contains games based on fun as well as knowledge for instance QUIZ,TIC TAC, COLOR GAME etc. It is a complete gaming website with different levels. From the future perspective ,we will keep on updating our website as trend changes so level of games will also change.

IDEA

As we all know that in today's world, Students and people of every age zone are so frustrated due to burden of work ,so we decided to reduce that stress as this website contains different games so it will relax their mind, will work as a stressbuster so that they can focus on their work again.
